This privacy policy applies to all personal data processed by organizers themselves (no third party involved) when acting on behalf of RESCUE, as well as all legal entities, all operating locations and all processes conducted by RESCUE.

Information collected

What information do we collect?

RESCUE collects or may collect the following personal data in line with the use purposes explained in a subsequent section:

- Your name and contact details
- Age, Sex, Date of birth and other Socio-demographic data
- Registration and participation in RESCUE events and activities
- Experiences, narrations, blogs and website related material either in textual or pictorial format
- Other information you upload or provide to us

How do we use your information?

RESCUE uses (and, where specified, shares) your personal information for the following purposes:

To process transactions. RESCUE uses personal information such as name, telephone number, email address, and socio-demographic information to engage in interactions with you, including contacting you about your registration and reaching out for your website-related issues. We do not take any kind of payment through the website for any means or purpose.

To provide support or other services. RESCUE may use your personal information to provide you with support or other services that you might have requested or which include in challenges. RESCUE may also use your personal information to respond directly to your requests for information, including registrations for challenges, or other specific requests.

To provide information based on your needs and respond to your requests. RESCUE may use your personal information to provide you with notices of certain developments.

To provide online forums and social networks. Some services available on the websites permit you to participate in interactive discussions, post comments, opportunities, or otherwise engage in networking activities. RESCUE does not control the content that other visitors post to these forums or social networks. You should carefully consider whether you wish to submit personal information to these forums or social networks and tailor any content you submit appropriately and in accordance with the relevant terms of use.

To protect RESCUE content and services. We may use your information to prevent potentially illegal activities and to enforce our terms and conditions. We also use a variety of technological systems to detect and address anomalous activity and to screen content to prevent abuse, such as spam. These efforts may, on occasion, result in a temporary or permanent suspension or termination of some functions for some users.

To get feedback or input from you. In order to deliver content of most interest to our customers, from time to time, we may ask members, customers, volunteers, and website visitors to provide us input and feedback (for example through surveys and forms).

To protect RESCUE information assets as well as your own personal data.

How do I contact you if there is an issue?

If you have any questions or concerns about this Privacy Policy or about the use of your personal information, please feel free to send all inquiries to screenrescue.org@gmail.com, or use the 'Contacts' tab where one of our dedicated support team members will assist you further.
